DIRECTORS' MEETING OF MERCHANT' ASSOCIATION.

It Was Held Yesterday Afternoon and Much Business Transacted—Many New Members Elected.

The Board of Directors of the Merchants' Association met yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. President Wm. E. Springer presided and Secretary P. Heinsberger was at his post. The directors in attendance were Messrs. Wm. E. Springer, Chas. M. Whitlock, William Nicstlie, George O. Gaylord, J. H. Rehder and J. H. Thomas.

Ten applications for membership were received and the following new members were unanimously elected:

Messrs. C. P. B. Mahler, M. Rosenmann, Martin O'Brien, Chas. H. Cooper, Swift & Co., M. A. Kenney, manager, W. T. Sears, manager Angola Lumber Co., Paul M. Taylor, E. M. Andrews, Thomas Quinlivan and W. B. Cooper.

Relative to complaints received about the condition of the streets as left by the Sewerage Company, the directors decided not to take action until next meeting in the hope that the trouble will be remedied.

The matter of publishing a booklet giving the names of all delinquents reported to the Association was left open until the next meeting in order to give all who owe bills and have not paid them an opportunity to do so, or be reported.

The meeting adjourned subject to to the call of the chairman.

LOCAL DOTS.

— The county school house at Greenville is about completed.

— The Spring Hope excursion brought to the city several hundred people.

— The ladies' yacht race of the Carolina Yacht Club takes place this afternoon.

— The latest excursion scheduled to come to Wilmington is that of J. H. West's, from Greensboro, the 30th inst.

— Walter Silvy was sentenced to thirty more days on the roads in the police court yesterday and this time he did not appeal the case.

— Justice Bornemann yesterday sent Minnie Jones, colored, to jail to keep the peace for six months. The Jones woman and two others were also tried for disorderly conduct and fined.

— A telegram received here yesterday announced the death of Mr. A. Braswell, of Whitaker, N. C., father of Mrs. D. W. Bulluck, of this city. Mrs. Bulluck and her son, Mr. Archie Bulluck, went to Whitaker last night.

— The horse editor is under obligations to Captain Martin Rathjen for a lot of watermelons produced on his farm five miles from the city. Farmer Rathjen not only knows how to raise melons, but he understands perfectly how to distribute them.

TO VISIT THE CAMP.

Wilmington Military Officers Will Visit the Fifth Georgia This Afternoon.

The officers in this city of the Second Regiment of the State Guards, the officers of the Wilmington Light Infantry and the member of the Governor's general staff will pay an official visit to-day to the Fifth Georgia Regiment at their camp at the Hammocks. The party, in full uniform, will go down on the early afternoon train and will be present at dress parade.

Those who will compose the party will be Lieutenant Colonel W. A. Johnson, Assistant Paymaster W. F. Robertson and Adjutant Champ McD. Davis, of the Second Regiment; Major C. H. White, of the Governor's staff, and Capt. A. P. Adrian, First Lieutenant N.E. Gillican and Second Lieutenant Geo. P. James, of the Light Infantry.

Col. Walker Taylor, paymaster of the Second Regiment, will not attend, as he is in camp at Southport.

Mechanics' Excursion a Success.

The excursion to Southport yesterday under the auspices of George Washington Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, was one of the most successful of the season. There were many features of entertainment each of which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd that "took in" the trip.

The committee of arrangements performed its work well. It was composed of Mr. A. Watkins, chairman, Dr. J. D. Webster and Mr. L. O. Smith.

Death of Mr. Geo. M. Trenholm.

The many friends here of Mr. George M. Trenholm will regret to learn of his death, which occurred yesterday, after a long and lingering illness at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

Mr. Trenholm was a brother-in-law of Dr. Russell Bellamy and the senior member of the Charleston law firm of Trenholm, Rhett, Miller & Whaley.

THE TURNPIKE SOLD.

County Commissioners Will Purchase the Beautiful Shell Road to Sound.

THE PRICE WANTED IS $7,500.

Deal Made and Will Probably Be Ratified at a Called Meeting of the Board Monday Afternoon—The Road a Popular Thoroughfare.

The deal of selling the turnpike to the county is about consummated. There was a conference yesterday between the parties interested, the outcome of which will be a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Monday afternoon which is certain to result in a sale of the property.

Marsden Bellamy, Esq., as president of the Wilmington & Coast Turnpike Company, has been negotiating the sale of the road with the commissioners. Yesterday to a Star representative Mr. Bellamy would not state the exact figures asked for the road, but said the price was a very reasonable one. From another source it is learned that $7,500 is the amount, which is decidedly reasonable enough.

It is understood that when the road changes hands it will be covered over in time with several inches of crushed rock. The Masonboro branch will also in all probability be put in good shape.

When the commissioners purchase the shell road they will have accomplished quite an achievement and one by which the people of the county will profit. Of course, the purchase will mean a free road, which will be a big saving to the country people who cart produce to market. They will save a toll of 15 cents per cart. People summering on the sound and those who enjoy the road as a fine driveway, to saying nothing of cyclists, will also be "in pocket."

The direct sale of the turnpike is attributable to the fact that a county road along the same route was necessary and it was the intention of the commissioners to parallel this one with another. This would have ruined the revenue of the present road; consequently the sale by which all parties interested under the circumstances save money.

The shell road is the property of the Wilmington and Coast Turnpike Company and has been in use over twenty-five years. It is said that the cost of building and maintenance has been something like $60,000. It has not been the best paying investment in the world by any means, as the road had to be kept in good condition and three toll houses maintained. The road is eight miles in length.

AT MARTINVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rathjen Royally Entertained Thursday Night.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rathjen delightfully entertained a party of friends Thursday night at their charming rural home, Martinville, at Wrightsboro, about five miles from the city. The guests went up from the city in wagonettes, and upon their arrival were heartily greeted by a reception party, composed of Mrs. Rathjen, Misses Gessine Doscher and Lena Schulken and Mr. Martin Rathjen, Jr.

The evening at Martinville was most enjoyably spent, as Mr. and Mrs. Rathjen proved to be royal entertainers. The programme of pleasures was both novel and excellent. One of the most amusing features was a game of quoits, which Mr. Will Mahler played with such a degree of success that he captured the first two prizes—a doll baby and a pretty cup and saucer. Mr. Ben Rathjen won the third award, a cologne bottle.

After the game Mr. Fred. Fuchs, who possesses an inimitable vein of humor, insisted on christening the doll baby, which incident caused much amusement.

About midnight the "inner man" was well looked after with an elaborate luncheon.

Each guest was presented with a handsome souvenir fan inscribed with the date, etc., of the splendid event.

Those who enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Rathjen's hospitality were Mrs. Johanna Fuchs, Misses Kate Behrends, Emma Schutte, Emma Wrede, Lena Behrends, Mary Rust, Lena Schulken Gessine Doscher, and Messrs. J. A. Behrends, Fred. Fuchs, George Schnibben, Will Maher, Ben Kulhken, Hermon Wrede, and William Tienken.

Accompanied the Officers.

Quite a number of the officers of the Fifth Georgia Regiment are accompanied by friends and relatives. Those registered at the Seashore Hotel are as follows: Mr S W Patterson, Mrs. Wm Eskine, Miss Theresa Eskine, Mrs Jno Flevert, Miss Emecher, Miss Vgma, Mrs. J D Dunnody and family, Mrs C Dunndy Smith, Miss Jones, Miss Robinson, Mr Wm Robinson, Mr. G W Forrester and family, Mr W T Spratt, Jr, Mr J V Gresham, Mr Carl Giles, Miss Mai Giles, Miss Hattie Pound, Miss Adora Anderson, Miss Ethel Mobley, Mrs W W Baker and family, Miss Curchill Bragham, all of Atlanta, and Mr F L Fregan, of Marietta, Ga.

"The Boston Italian String Band" will remain in Wilmington for the season, and will furnish music on all occasions. All transactions by mail or wire will receive prompt attention. Apply to V. Cammariero, No. 611 South Front, or D. Amerena, No. 209 Castle street.

WASHINGTON ATTORNEYS RETURNED LAST NIGHT.

Government to Buy the Parsley Property and Pay All Claims for Damages. Valued at About $15,000.

The two attorneys who have been here investigating the sale of the Parsley wharf property to the government, as authorized by a recent act of Congress, returned to Washington yesterday. C. W. Maupin, Esq., the government representative, went down to Southport yesterday morning to go on the Algonquin to Baltimore, thence to Washington. S. V. Hayden, Esq., whose firm, Hayden & Yarrell, are counsel for the Parsley heirs, went direct to Washington last night.

The investigation made by the attorneys here was along the plan called for in the act of Congress, that in purchasing the Parsley property the government had to pay whatever damages had been sustained by the owners of the property, in allowing the revenue cutters to land at the wharf to the exclusion of all other vessels. In other words the $16,000 appropriated was not alone to obtain a title to the property but to fully satisfy all claims for damages.

The investigation was satisfactory to both sides. Over a score of witnesses were examined and their evidence tended to show that the property is worth from $10,000 to $18,000 and that the damage sustained by the owners by the loss of rent, caused by cutters taking berth at the wharf to the exclusion of all other ships, is from $4,000 to $7,000.

The various cutters stationed at this port since 1885 have used the Parsley wharf without paying rent and would not permit any other vessel to land or take berth there during their stay, consequently the owners suffered much by the loss of rent. Then, the revenue boats made it impossible for the wharf to be used for any purpose, except their accommodation, as they had used it as a dumping place for refuse, such as cinders.

There is but little doubt but the government will pay the entire $16,000 for the property, which is well and centrally located, and thereby satisfy all claims for damages.

BOYS' BRIGADE IN CAMP.

Encampment at Southport is a Big Success—The Boys Strictly Observing Camp Discipline—Notes.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

Camp Macon, Southport, July 17.

Upon arrival yesterday we were received at camp by the advance guard in military style. The flag was immediately raised and a military salute fired from a three-inch howitzer. The boys then began selecting tent mates, Kure insisting that he had a right to occupy a tent with Wife Willets. Willets protested and Kure preferred charges. A court of inquiry was convened, presided over by Capt. Curtis and composed of Sergeants Dosher and King, assisted by Assistant Clerk of Court Quinn, acting as judge advocate. Kure was represented by his attorney, Mr. Burriss. Willet's interest was protected by Mr. Linder. The decision of the court was that Willets should not be thus afflicted, and he was permitted to occupy tent No. 6 all by his lonesome, and it was further adjudged that Kure be taxed with the cost of the action.

The Camp was treated last night to an ice cream supper by Messrs. Craig & Mints, which was thoroughly enjoyed and duly appreciated by those who participated in it. The camp is strictly military, all hours and duties being observed. There were expressions of universal regret that sickness prevented our former correspondent and literary genius C., C. L., from being with us.

If the first day's experience is a fair sample this bids fair to be easily the best encampment we have had yet.

For this and every other reason we regret the absence of a number of our old reliable members, who on account of business are unable to be with us and are thus denied the benefit of this, our annual outing. We who are here are deeply grateful to our employers for their kind consideration, and expect to return to our work prepared to render better service than ever before.

GEORGIANS ARE HERE

The Fifth Regiment Arrived Yesterday Morning and Are Now in Camp.

A SPLENDID BODY OF MEN.

The Train Moved in Three Sections Here. A Big Excursion Accompanied the Boys—Camp Named in Honor of Georgia's New Governor.

The Hammocks isle is now a beautiful tented city and alive with the gallant soldiers of the Fifth Georgia Regiment, which has entered upon the annual encampment there.

Yesterday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock the train bearing the soldiers arrived in the city via the Seaboard Air Line in two sections, and, after a slight delay at the Y, caused by one of the cars being derailed, went through to the Hammocks. Later in the day the excursion train, with eight hundred and fifty jolly Atlantians aboard, reached the city.

The regiment is now thoroughly comfortable in their quarters at Wrightsville.

Yesterday afternoon dress parade was held for the first time, the boys going through the drill like regulars. In fact, a good percentage of the men saw service both in Cuba and in the Philippines. They seem very well pleased, both with the location of the camp and the beach.

The following is a list of the officers of the regiment:

Lieut Col C L Anderson, Commanding.

Capt Burton Smith, Regimental Adjutant.

Capt J D Dunwoody, Commissary.

Capt W C Nunnamacher, Quartermaster.

Capt B W Bizzell, Surgeon.

First Lieut S H Green, Assistant Surgeon.

Capt C B Wilmer, Chaplain.

First Lieut C C Harper, Adjutant First Battalion.

Maj W W Barker, Second Battalion.

First Lieut C E Harper, Adjutant Second Battalion.

Maj W H Shearer, Third Battalion.

F J Rives, Reg. Sergeant Major; Phil L Byrd and W H Underwood, clerks at regimental headquarters; W H Joyner, commissary Sergeant; E R Guard, Q M Sergeant; Jno Q Howard, Battalion Sergeant, Maj., First Battalion; W J Jones, sergeant Maj Second Battalion.

Company A, T S Smith, Captain; Ed Dooley, First Sergeant.

Company B, H W Anderson, Captain; C C Holt, First Lieutenant, G H Staffnell, Second Lieutenant; C W Bernhardt, First Sergeant.

Company C, M A Erskine, Captain; M Z L Fuller, First Lieutenant; T P Mitchell, First Sergeant.

Company D, H L Harrison, Captain; F M Hadley, Jr, First Lieutenant; Byron Fowler, First Sergeant.

Company G, F S Parrott, Captain: C B Glover, Second Lieutennant; E R Dent, First Sergeant.

Company H, Harper Hamilton' Captain; C E Davis, Second Lieutenant; Frank Carver, First Sergeant.

Company I, R F Williamson, Captain; Jas Dempsey, First Lieutenant; E J Logan, Second Lieutenat; F C Baumgardner, First Sergeant.

Company K, E E Pomeroy, Captain; S E Bellivean, First Lieutenant; J W Cavender, Second Lieutenant; James Wilson, First Sergeant.

Company L, James F O'Neill, Captain; Robt Schmidt, Second Lieutenant, Eugene Schmidt, First Sergeant.

Company M, W J Preston, Captain; — Preston, First Lieutenant; T. A Kemp, First Sergeant.

Battery A is in command of Sergeant Cone.

The camp is named "Camp Terrell" in honor of Hon. Jos M Terrell, the newly nominated Governor of the State of Georgia. The following order was issued from the regimental headquarters yesterday afternoon.

General Orders No. 16.

1. In honor of Jos M Terrell this camp will be known and designated as Camp Terrell.

2. The daily morning reports will be turned in at regimental headquarters not later than 8 A M.

3. Daily inspection of camp will be made by the chief surgeon, or his assistants, report thereof to be made to the commanding officer.

Company officers will cause their streets, mess halls and kitchens to be put in order at police call daily. The camp is subject to the inspection of the commanding officer at all hours.

4. Officers and men are required to attend all duties unless excused by proper authority.

Passes to be absent from camp after taps will be issued only upon recommendation of company commanders.

5. No ornaments will be worn on uniforms excepting such as are specially prescribed by regulations.

6. Attention of Company Commanders is called to the absolute necessity of having guns thoroughly oiled each day. They will also exact strict military courtesy in their command. They are responsible for the instruction of their men in this particular as in all others.

7. Maj. W. W. Barker, Second Battalion, is hereby designated Instructor of the Camp, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

8. Officers will report to the Commanding Officer at Regiment Headquarters after Guard Mount each morning.

9. Trumpet Calls for all duties will be sounded by a field musician at Post Headquarters and in front of each Battalion's Headquarter's, as follows until further orders, viz: First Call for Reveille, 5:30 A M; Reveille, 5:45 A M; Assembly, 5:55 A M; Coffee (Mess), 6:00 A M; First Call for Drill, 6:15 A M; Assembly, 6:20 A M; Recall, 7:00 A M; Breakfast (Mess), 7:10 A M; Sick Call, 7:15 A M; Fatigue, 7:40 A M; First Call for Guard Mount, 7:50 A M; Assembly, 00 A M; Adjutant's Call, 8:05 A M; First Sergeant's Call, 11:00 A M; Dinner (Mess), 12:00 M; First Call for Drill, 5:00 P M; Assembly, 5:10 P M; Recall, 5:30 P M; First Call for Parade, 5:45 P M; Assembly, 5:55 P M; Adjutant's Call, 6:00 P M; Supper (Mess), 7:00 P M; Tattoo, 10:30 P M; Taps, 11:00 P M.

By order Lieut.-Colonel Anderson.
Official: Burton Smith,
Captain and Adjutant.

Sergant Turner of Company A had the misfortune to fall through the trestle, injuring his wrist severely.

The regiment brought about 850 excursionists from Atlanta. They could not be accommodated at the Seashore Hotel, as every room is occupied. The management has had to put up tents along the beach to accommodate the crowd. The regimental band showed in fine shape at dress parade.

Lieutenant Colonel Kenan of Governor Chandler's staff, is in camp with the regiment. The colonel is very fond of the Beach, this being his second season at Wrightsville.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Young White Woman for the Third Time Tries to End Her Life.

The fallen woman, Alma Morriss, last night for the third time within the last month attempted to take her life.

Early in the evening she was discovered on the rear porch of the house where she boards, on MacRae street, between Chesnut and Grace, with her throat badly cut. It was thought at first that the wound was fatal, but it developed that the cut was not deep enough to have such an effect. It was more of a bad gash.

A physician, Dr. G. Kirby Collier, was obtained at once and dressed the wound.

THE BEACH CHURCH.

It Will Shortly Be Erected and Located Near the Chadbourn Cottage.

The proposed church on Wrightsville Beach, mentioned in the Star yesterday, is to be located near the Chadbourn cottage, which is a nice locality for a place of worship. It will be unpretentious in appearance yet of pretty design, and will comfortably seat nearly a hundred people.

Work upon the edifice will start shortly and it will be pushed with such rapidity that it is thought that only about a week will be consumed in erecting the building.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

— Mr. J. M. Scott, of Charlotte, was with us yesterday.

— The Star regrets to learn that Mr. W. G. Hill is sick.

— A. W. McLean, Esq., of Lumberton, was here yesterday.

— Mr. E. H. Gaines, of Winston, was in the city yesterday.

— Mr. G. H. Miles, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday.

— Mr. John D. Wells, of Wilson, was among yesterday's arrivals.

— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pickett, of East Arcadia, were in the city yesterday.

— Miss Foster, of Union, S. C., is on Wrightsville sound at Mrs. Wright's for the Summer.

— We are glad to know that Mr. R. J. Rivenbark, of the Atlantic Coast Line offices, is able to be out again.

— Miss Essie McD. Smith, of Charlotte, is here visiting her brother, Mr. J. E. Smith, North Front street.

— Colonel and Mrs. Broadfoot, son and daughters, of Fayetteville, are at Wrightsville spending the Summer.

— Miss Henrietta Aurbach, of Atlanta, who is pleasantly remembered as the guest of Mrs. Joe Kahn last winter, is at the Seashore Hotel.

— Mrs. Jas. H. Claspy and granddaughter, Miss Mary Cronnier, arrived yesterday from Atlanta to visit her sister, Mrs. H. F. Clowe, 420 North Third street.

— Mr. R. N. Nash, private secretary to Traffic Manager T. M. Emerson, of the Greater Atlantic Coast Line, returned yesterday from Washington, D. C.

Painful Accident.

Mr. D. E. Riley, a brick mason, met with a painful and what might have been a serious accident Thursday morning while at work on the new annex of Grace Methodist church. An eight-foot scaffold, upon which he was working at the time, fell, precipitating him to the ground. He struck his left shoulder, receiving a very painful injury.

Mr. Riley's home is in Florida, but he came here from Florence, S. C.

Fire Yesterday Afternoon.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the fire department was called out by an alarm from box No. 16, Fourth and Brunswick streets. The fire was a small one on the roof of a one-story dwelling house, occupied by Lucy Hall, colored, No. 215 Brunswick street, and was caused by a spark from a blazing chimney. The damage was slight.

Crop Conditions Still Good.

Mr. J. D. Austin, of Maxton, representing the Standard Oil Company, in Lumberton, Wednesday told the Robesonian that during the eleven years he has been travelling in the county he has never seen the crops so good generally. Rain, he says, is needed in some sections, but there is now little or no suffering from drought.

Greater Coast Line Notes.

The Savannah News, in speaking of the appointment of auditors and assistant auditors of the Greater Coast Line, which has already been noted in the Star, says:

"Mr. McIver has been auditor of receipts for the Plant System, and Mr. McKee has been auditor of disbursements. They and their forces will soon remove from Savannah to Wilmington. They will be gone by August 1."

Yesterday afternoon's Florence Times says:

"The forces of carpenters and machinists at the Coast Line shops continue to receive additions. Several new men have been put to work. The first Plant system engine to be repaired here came yesterday. It is the S. F. and W. No. 4, and will be thoroughly overhauled."

Cannot Review Georgia Troops.

Yesterday's Atlanta Constitution says:

"Governor Aycock informs the Constitution that he greatly appreciates the compliment paid him by the Fifth Georgia infantry in tendering him a review at Wrightsville, but that he will not be able to be present and that Adjutant General Beverly S. Royster will receive the review in his stead. The Governor expresses the hope that the Georgia soldiers and their friends will thoroughly enjoy their stay at Wrightsville."

Ball Game This Afternoon.

A really good game of ball is on tap is this afternoon at Hilton park and our many lovers of this sport will, no doubt, profit by seeing it. It will be played between the Coast Line and Delgado teams, each of which is a strong one. The game will be called promptly at 4:20 o'clock. The admission will be 10 cents.

Two Thousand Yards of Dirt.

Contractor Applegate is nearing completion the work of filling in the yard at the foot of Chesnut street, on the north side, to be used by J. A. Springer & Co. The job required 2,000 yards of dirt.

The Morning Star.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 19.

A TANGLED WEB.

In writing a few days ago on the question of getting rid of the friars in the Philippines, we expressed the opinion that if a peremptory demand were made for their withdrawal and insisted upon it would probably put an end to the negotiations for the purchase of the 400,000 acres of land which the friars own. This Government did not care for the land, but proposed to purchase it to get rid of the friars, and the main reason, as we see it, for desiring to get rid of them was not to placate the Filipinos, who are said to dislike them, but because they were supposed to be unfriendly to this country and more loyal to Spain than they are to the United States, which supposition is probably well founded. Governor Taft made the withdrawal of the friars a condition to the purchase of their lands, on the assumption, perhaps, that the Vatican had the power to arbitrarily order them to vacate, which assumption seems to have been unfounded, even if the Vatican was disposed to co-operate with Governor Taft in his efforts to get rid of the friars, which it was not.

Unfortunately for the success of this scheme Governor Taft had put himself in the attitude of a partisan against and an enemy of the friars before he went on his mission to Rome, and consequently he went handicapped by his own record. The cardinals who were assigned to the the task of negotiating with him, were familiar with this record as published, and knew more about the friars than he did and knew the Paris treaty and the clauses in that document which put a limitation upon the powers of this Government, and therefore they took ample time to consider his propositions and demands, and ample time to answer them, and when they did answer them it was to the effect that the Vatican felt that it could not act hastily in a matter of such grave importance and that final action should not be taken against the friars without their having an opportunity to be heard in their own behalf and something to say about putting a valuation upon the property of which it was proposed to dispossess them.

As a sort of compromise, however, so as not to make Governor Taft feel as if effort his had been a total failure, the request was assented to that the Vatican instruct the friars to devote themselves strictly to their clerical and parochial duties and let civil and political matters alone. This seems to be the fruitage of Governor Taft's visit to Rome, whither he went fully determined to get those objectionable friars out of the Philippines. He found he could not do it, and then compromised by securing assent to something which would probably have been assented to two years ago if the simple request had been made through this Government.

Charges of oppression, disloyalty to the Philippines and loyalty to Spain, of being spies, informers, prosecutors and frequently judges to condemn the accused, with being immoral, etc., had been made against the friars, and believed by Governor Taft. Some of these charges were probably true, while some of them were doubtless false, but Governor Taft made them the ground of his opposition to the friars, and his outspoken dislike for them.

He puts his desire for their withdrawal on the ground that they are much abhorred by the Filipinos, and that letting them remain in possession of their holdings would cause endless trouble and imperil the public peace. There is no question that some of the Filipinos heartily hate the friars, and that if they had the power they would confiscate every foot of land they own, and drive them from the islands, but there is no proof that this enmity is general. But whether it is or not, or whether it is well founded or not, or without taking into account the advisability or inadvisability of forcing the friars out, when Governor Taft giving a reason for his anxiety for their withdrawal says their presence is odious and an imperiller of the peace does he not concede that this Government is making through him a confession of weakness in not being able to preserve the public peace, when it claims to have conquered peace, with some 9,000,000 or 10,000,000 of people arrayed on the other side? This is a mere pretence to justify a move which was begun without having fully considered the treaty with Spain, which move was blocked by that treaty, and made a failure. The failure of the negotiations at Rome and the transfer of future proceeding to a later date and at Manila, is virtually a confession of inability to squeeze the friars out as proposed by Governor Taft, seconded by the President and Secretary Root, all of whom made the mistake of failing to ascertain how far they could go before they started.

Some of the friars will doubtless go of their own accord, because their avocations will be gone, and they may find more congenial fields of activity, or of sequestration, as the case may be, in some other direction but they can't be forced out, for this Government is pledged to their protection, and the only justification for a violation of that pledge would be some act by the friars, the result of which would be a forfeiture of that pledged protection. This is just the predicament in which this Government finds itself when tackling the friar question, which has turned out to be a more perplexing one than was anticipated.

ACTS VERSUS PROFESSIONS.

It is a customary trick with the Republican politicians of this State, and one that machine manager Pritchard very frequently plays, to pose as the special friends of the poor man, champions of popular education, friends of the old soldier, etc., and on these grounds appeal to popular support. But facts speak stronger and more eloquently than professions. Some of these were forcibly presented in the speech of Senator Simmons at the Democratic Convention in Greensboro, Wednesday, facts showing what the Democratic party has done, in contrast with the airy professions of the Republicans and what they did when in power. In speaking of what the Democratic administration which succeeded the Republican-Populist combine, has done for the deaf, dumb and blind, for the insane, for the ex-Confederate pensioners and for the education of the State's boys and girls, he said:

In addition to the duty of enacting wise and just laws for the protection of life, liberty and property, the State owes to society and civilization three paramount duties, which the Democratic party is pledged to discharge to the fullest extent of the ability of a generous, humane and patriotic people. We owe to the children of the State the duty of giving them an opportunity to acquire an education. This the constitution requires and the Democratic party has promised. This year, for the first time in the history of the State, we have reached the constitutional requirement and have given to each common school district in the State a four months' term. There most be no falling off or turning back in this matter.

The State owes a high duty to God's unfortunates—those upon whom the hand of affliction has been heavily laid; the insane, the deaf, the dumb, the blind, and the helpless poor. No people need expect the blessings of Providence who neglect to minister to the needs of these unhappy ones. It is a reproach to the State, and it will continue to be a reproach to the State as long as one of these has to be housed or confined in a place set apart for the criminals.

Last, but not least, we owe a duty, a sweet and loving duty, to the broken remnant of that immortal band who, at their country's call, risked their lives in defence of a cause and a principle which they believed and which we believed to be right. Greater love hath no man than this, that he give his life for his friends. He who goes to war for his country, risks his life for his fellow man. As long as one of these old heroes lives, it will be the duty of the State to see that he suffers no want he cannot himself reasonably supply.

These are duties imposed upon us by civilization, by Christianity, and by patriotism.

The Democratic Legislature of 1899 and 1901 appropriated for these three great objects, education, charity and pensions to Confederate soldiers—something over a million dollars more than the two fusion Legislatures appropriated for those purposes, and at the end of the present fiscal year the Democratic party will have spent for these three great objects something more than a million dollars more than the fusionists spent for these purposes during the four years they were in power.

During the three and a half years of our tenure of office we have appropriated, and at the end of the present fiscal year we will have spent six hundred thousand dollars; (mark the figures and register them in your minds) six hundred thousand dollars more for the common schools than the fusionists appropriated and spent for that purpose during the four years of their tenure of office.

Here is telling reply with which to confront the Republican tricksters when they rend the air with their yawp about the interest they feel in the masses of the people, and what they would do for them if in power. It is a striking contrast between what the Democratic administration has done and what the Republican-Populist administration, with all their talk, didn't do when they had the power to do.

The sailing vessel as a freighter is coming to the front again. Several very large ones, five or six masters, have been built within the last few years, the last being the Thos. W. Lawson, a seven mast schooner, launched at Quincy, Mass., last week. The seven masts are 155 feet high, and carry 43,000 square feet of canvas. She carries six steam engines, five of 20-horse power and one of 45-horse power, to operate sails, lift anchors, load and unload cargoes, etc., so that a crew of sixteen will be sufficient. It is contended that these large sailers can be more economically operated than steamers.

Dr. Wiley, Chief of the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry, proposes to make some tests of chemically preserved foodstuffs and will be glad to have the assistance of some able-bodied young men. All he wants with them is to take the chances of being poisoned by this chemically preserved stuff. He will furnish rations free, the only condition being that the volunteers pledge themselves to tote fair and confine themselves to the bill of fare which he provides.

And now the big wholesale grocery men of Chicago have organized a trust. Good gracious! Isn't the stuff they sell high enough already?

Insanity Due to Nervous and Mental Troubles.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Great Tower of Safety and Rock of Health in the Hot Weather.

Nervous diseases when aggravated by mental disturbances produce more causes of insanity in the hot weather than at any other season of the year. Nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness and chronic constipation induce depression of spirits, extreme weakness, morbid fears, despondency and langour; from these, dread insanity comes slowly but surely.

Nervous sufferers have a dread of hot weather. Finding themselves deeper in the pit of misery than they were in the spring and early summer, they are in utter despair.

There is hope for you, dear reader, if you are one of the sufferers. You stand in need of Paine's Celery Compound, that great builder of the nervous system. Its vitalizing action commences with the first bottle you use. The volume of blood immediately increases in the arteries, and the body is fully fed and nourished. Your appetite becomes regular and natural, the nerves and brain are strengthened, and you have impulses of health that cheer the soul.

This remarkable remedy will truly meet your case and give you new life; it will lay the foundation for happiness and long years. We counsel you to try this marvelous summer health-restorer at once, and enjoy the blessings of health.

THE STEEL TRUST.

There has been a great deal of talk about the U. S. Steel Trust and its immense capital, but very little was known outside of the Trust management as to what the properties are and the value of these properties controlled by the Trust. This information was given out a few days ago in a sworn statement by President Charles M. Schwab before a New Jersey court. The aggregate value of these properties, according to his statement, is $1,400,291,000, divided as follows:

Iron and Bessemer ore properties	$700,000,000
Plants, mills, fixtures and real estate	$200,000,000
Coal and coke fields (87,589 acres)	$109,000,000
Transportation properties, including railroads (1,467 miles), terminals, docks, ships (112), equipment (23,185 cars), and 428 locomotives)	$80,000,800
Blast furnaces	$48,000,000
Natural Gas fields	$20,000,000
Limestone properties	$4,000,000
Cash and cash assets (as of June 1, 1902)	$148,291,000
Total	$1,400,291,000

He says there is no water in this. In this connection he stated that the net earnings for the past quarter were $37,691,700; at the rate of $150,766.000 a year. He also expressed the opinion that the profits ending April 1st, 1093, the second year of the existence of the Trust, will be larger than those of the first year, and will probably exceed $140,000,000. He also made the interesting statement that the Trust could stand a reduction of 75 per cent in its profits without loss, and yet we are told by Republican statesmen who are opposed to tariff revision that a reduction of duties on steel manufactures would ruin the U. S. Steel Company and all other steel companies.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— John D. Rockefeller may succeed in taking J. Pierpont Morgan's place as the leader in American finances. But Morgan got to court in knee breeches first. Washington, Star, Rep.

—— Senor Gonzalo de Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, denies point-blankly General Fitz Lee's statement about Cuba's condition. We do not think that the people of the country will be placed in any dilemma by this conflict of opinion. Gen. Lee's credit is still good. —Norfolk Landmark, Dem.

—— The Republicans purposely made the Dingley tariff higher than they would have otherwise made it in order that they might reduce it by reciprocity, but they have been unable to reduce it in the least, by reciprocity or otherwise. Is it at all doubtful whether the Republicans are their own masters or are controlled outright by the tariff subsidized interests?—Louisville Courier-Journal, Dem.

—— No doubt the Cubans who desire annexation have been impressed by the prosperity which free trade has brought to Porto Rico. The Porto Rican industries are in the main flourishing. Take the tobacco trade, for instance. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1901, the imports to the United States of Porto Rican cigars aggregated $300,000. For the year ended June 30, 1802, Porto Rico cigars valued at about $1,800,000 were exported to the United States. The exports of American products to Porto Rico show a satisfactory increase. It is not strange that a certain element in Cuba, seeing how greatly Porto Rico has profited by annexation to the United States, should desire political union with this country. But this element should not be to hopeful and aggressive, The defeat of the Reciprocity bill proved that the stalwart American protectionist is still in the saddle, ready to do battle for the idolized "home market and domestic producer."—Baltimore Sun, Dem.

The mills made an excellent showing for the six months just closed, and a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. was declared. During the six months ended June 30th, these mills paid out $436,652.12 for expenses, or over $3,000 a day.

— Wilkesboro Chronicle: Two large cranes were killed at the pond at the Curtis place Monday morning. Mr. Morrison who lives there now tells us the largest crane measured 6 feet and 2 inches from tip to tip, and was over 5 feet high. —— A few nights, Mr. E. W. Settle, of Benham, heard a racket among his chickens, and when he got there he found a big chicken snake and three dead chickens. He killed the snake before it got hold of another chicken. —— The negro convict, who escaped from the camp on Reddies River last week was captured Monday up near F. T. Alander's. When the negro escaped bloodhounds were put on his trail. The dogs came up with the negro, but he made friends with them and the dogs did not harm him. When the negro was located and an attempt was made to capture him, the dogs defended him and one of the dogs was killed before the convict could be taken. F. T. Alexander finally succeeded in capturing the negro, but not until the convict was shot in the back and seriously wounded. It is doubtful whether or not the negro will recover.

— Greensboro Record: The man knocked from the Southern tracks by an incoming train near Holt's Chapel Monday morning, died at Dr. Thames' sanitarium yesterday at 11 o'clock without regaining consciousness, though he was recognized as J. S. Turner, aged 19. He worked at Revolution Mills and left there about four months ago. It is thought he was going to Burlington and had become sleepy and sat down upon the track and went to sleep, becoming dazed as he awoke by the approaching train. ——A rather singular fatality occurred Wednesday afternoon about half-past six, whereby an innocent old darkey lost his life. The city is doing some quarry work in a field near Cedar street and late in the afternoon an occasional blast is heard. Yesterday afternoon Anderson Watkins, colored, who works for Dr. L. W. Crawford, was driving along Guilford Avenue, near Merrimon's factory, when a blast at the quarry was sent off. A piece of the rock was sent spinning up and away, hitting Watkins on the leg and severing an artery, causing death in about an hour. Physicians were summoned quickly, but could not save his life. Watkins was taking home a load of straw and was riding on the wagon at the time. The rock was thrown perhaps three hundred yards.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, July 18.—On the opening the cotton market was dull but steady, with prices one point higher to two lower. The Liverpool cables were of indifferent importance while the crop and weather news were quite in line with anticipation bearish. Then came buying orders from Liverpool and from Southern spinning interests for the Summer months which led to a small scare of late months shorts. While trading during the balance of the morning was not active, the course of the market was upward with plenty of rumors in circulation that spinners found it cheaper to buy July and August here and take cotton on contract, than to purchase in the Southern markets, where offerings were scarce even at higher prices. In the early afternoon New Orleans sent September buying orders here, while spot cotton holders helped to support the Summer options. The distant positions were reluctant to sympathize with the near month strength, owing to the excellent character of the crop reports and to a forecast for showers and thunder storms pretty much throughout the belt to-night and to-morrow. The market was finally steady and net four to eight points higher. Total sales were estimated at 75,000 bales, a considerable proportion of which was near delivery cotton.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Cotton quiet at 9⅜c; net receipts — bales; gross receipts 1,567 bales; stock 144,950 bales.

Spot cotton closed quiet and steady; middling uplands 9⅜c; middling gulf 9⅝c; sales 45 bales.

CHICAGO, July 18.—There was great excitement in grains to-day. Heavy rains in the Southwest frightened shorts, who bid so frantically to cover their outstanding accounts that prices especially in oats and wheat literally soared. At top prices there was plenty of stuff for sale in deferred options and prices sagged somewhat. July deliveries, however, fluctuated in a fashion that would have done credit to a corner and at the close all prices were strong. July oats closed 3¢ higher, September oats 1c up, July wheat 2¾c higher, September wheat 1¢ up, July corn 1¢ higher and September 1¢ up. Provisions closed 7½ lower to 5c higher.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Cash prices: Flour easy. Wheat—No. 2 spring 75@77c; No. 3 spring 77c; No. 2 red 77½c. Corn—No. 2, 65¼@65½c; No. 2 yellow 65½c. Cures Cholera-Infantum, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and the Bowel Troubles of Children of Any Age. Aids Digestion, Regulates the Bowels, Strengthens the Child and Makes TEETHING EASY.

Costs Only 25 cents at Druggists, Or mail 25 cents to C. J. MOFFETT, M. D., ST. LOUIS, MO.

FLORENCE, S. C., Nov. 26, 1900.—I was first advised by our family physician in Charleston to use TEETHINA with our baby when he was but a very young infant, as a preventive of colic and to warm and sweeten the stomach. Later it was useful in teething troubles, and its effect has been found to be so very beneficial and so free from dangers that are consequent upon the use of drugs and soothing syrups, that we have come to regard it, after use with three children, as one of the necessities when there is a new baby in the house and until the teething troubles are over, and we take pleasure in recommending it to our friends instead of the horrid stuff that so many people use to keep their baby quiet. HARTWELL M. AYER, (Manager Daily Times and Weekly Times-Messenger.)

WOMAN AND HOME

SHE LIKES ANIMALS.

A Society Woman Who Breeds and Trains Dogs and Horses.

Mrs. Richard Donnelly, daughter of Dr. Cyrus Edson, enjoys the unique distinction of being the only society woman in America to devote herself to the training and breeding of animals.

Horses and dogs are Mrs. Donnelly's especial care, and it goes without saying that only those of well established pedigree find entrance to her stables and her kennels.

Her dogs and horses have won innumerable blue ribbons at the shows in New York, Newport and other cities. As a horsewoman Mrs. Donnelly ranks with Mrs. James L. Kernochan and Mrs. Adolph Ladenburg in skill and intrepidity.

Mrs. Donnelly's stock farm is in Westchester county, N. Y., not a great distance from New York city. She calls it her "ranch," and the neighbors have fallen easily into her custom in this respect. Though small in area—it occupies only about the space of two city blocks—it is crowded with the finest breeds of horses.

Mrs. Donnelly was born with her fondness for dogs and horses. In the days before her marriage and previous to her removal to Mamaroneck she was to be seen nearly every day in Central park on her favorite horse Rocks.

The horse was white, and as the rider's hair was of the color that artist's call Titian there were many pleasant jokes by her friends at her expense, which she relished as much as they did.

Home Life.

There is probably no other subject in the world about which there has been so much sentiment as home. The sweetest poets have sung its delights; the finest oratory has laid the fairest garlands upon its altars. There is no fancy so dull it does not picture a place where the weary heart may find peace and rest and where love binds up the wounds the world has dealt.

It is the ideal home of which every man dreams and in which every true woman hopes to reign some day as queen. So far as the outward signs go, many achieve their desire, but if "stone walls do not a prison make or iron bars a cage" still less does the mere possession of a house make a real home. It may be beautiful within and without, rich in art treasure and costly bric-a-brac, yet if consideration and forbearance and love and patience do not furnish it it is as lacking in the essential attributes of a true home as the bare stones in the street.

"Shall I not take mine ease in mine inn?" asks bluff Sir John. "Shall I not take mine ease in mine own house?" we ask. "Shall I not there be free from prying eyes and at liberty to do even as it pleases me?"

Only too many of us roughly translate this to mean that we feel at perfect liberty to make our homes a dumping ground for all our bad temper and irritability and the boorishness that we would not dare to inflict on the outside world.

It is a strange and very pathetic fact that we give our best to strangers and chance acquaintances and keep for our nearest and dearest only what is left of our brightness and amiability.

New Cure For the "Blues."

Quite the newest prescription for relief of that form of nervousness known as "the blues" is the simple direction to smile. "Smile early and often. The more blue you feel the more you must smile," says a physican. "One of the greatest advantages of physical training is the effect it has upon the nerve system and the mental atmosphere that is so closely dependent upon it. If the blood is circulating vigorously, every muscle firm and elastic and every heart beat strong and regular, there is not much to fear from the blues. Even legitimate causes for depression lose half their weight when the body is kept in good condition by judicious exercise.

"The philosophy of the smile cure lies in the fact that the body being the means by which the mind expresses itself there must be a certain co-ordination. If the body refuses to express the mental suggestion of depression, the mind will change its attitude and accept the body's suggestion of joyousness.

"If, on the contrary, the physical admits the mental 'blueness,' the body in a short time becomes languid, the head feels dull and often aching, the blood flows sluggishly, and actual sickness results in some degree.

"The facial muscles being those through which the greatest play of expression is possible, it follows that their reaction upon the mind is quickest. The mere effort to smile produces a revulsion of feeling, and the artificial soon becomes a real laugh."

A Woman of Judgment.

It is pretty well understood that the surest way to please a man is to flatter him. Did you ever see a skillful woman at that sort of work? Her methods differ, according to the characters of her dupes, but she generally uses the inferential process.

"I don't care for short men," she says to De Long, with a killing upward look. "They lack presence." And De Long, who suggests a drawn out jumping jack, smiles with delight and tries to look majestic. To Short she confides that she dislikes big men. Most great personages have been small, and she alludes to Napoleon and Cæsar and similar gentry. Short—he is 5 feet 1 and tips the scales at 110—is reduced to imbecility and follows her about like a poodle.

She compliments an author's book and pretends she did not know who wrote it. She discusses a picture with an artist and is overcome with surprise when she finds it is his. She tells the man who deafens you by means of a cornet that she loves martial music. She informs the violinist who has jarred every one of your nerves that there is nothing so divinely sweet as string instruments, and everywhere admiring masculine eyes follow her, and masculine tongues murmur in delighted chorus, "Truly a woman of judgment, and her manners are charming."

At which women smile. But the flatterer scores every time.—Tit-Bits.

Country Cures.

Modern wisdom smiles at the superstitious charms our forefathers used to depend upon to cure their ills and preserve them in health, but it is not so very long ago that Devon and Cornwall people used to believe that the knuckle bone of a leg of mutton worn round the neck was a sure for sciatica or that blackheads in the face would disappear immediately if the afflicted individual crept under an arched bramble branch. A Somersetshire cure for consumption was to lead or carry the sufferer through a flock of sheep in the early morning when they were first let out of the fold. Some mothers used to place consumptive children in cots in the center of the sheepfold and there leave them from 11:30 till 1 o'clock in the morning, believing that the malady would pass away before the rising of that morn's sun. West of England folk still say that an invalid when going out for the first walk during convalescence must take care to go with the sun, from east to west, or west to east if after sundown; otherwise a serious relapse cannot be avoided. In south Wales as late as 1848 a woman who had been bitten by a mad donkey was persuaded by her neighbors to go and eat grass in the nearest churchyard.—Family Herald.

Managing a Wife.

Not without experience did the Senegalese chief formulate his rules for the management of women. Forty-five wives had fallen to his share, and he may be forgiven some little touch of cynicism. "A woman," he says, "admires a lion that will eat her more than a monkey that chatters for her peanuts. Better have a woman to fear you. Slap some; pinch others; never pat them unless to save a word."

Here speaks the wisdom of Solomon. "A woman fights with glances, a man with spears, and some glances are sharper than spears. Some wives love grievances, like children. See that such wives have a family of grievances."

Again this much married philosopher unburdens himself in this wise: "If there is trouble in your huts," he says, "shift the women; women must live together a week before they fight. Marry much, and do not take it seriously. Often bad wives make good widows. It is hard to be the widower of a good wife."

The Young Marquis.

In the lower end of Union square, in New York, is a bronze statue. It is nearly opposite the corner of Broadway and Fourteenth street. It represents a tall young man in the close fitting uniform of an American general of the time of the Revolution. With his right hand he clasps a sword against his breast. His left hand is stretched out toward the statue of Washington on horseback, which is near by.

This is the statue of Lafayette, the gallant Frenchman, whom the people of the Revolutionary days delighted to name "the young marquis." His real name was Marie Jean Paul Roch Yves Gilbert Motier, marquis de La Fayette.

His service to America was so great that the statue was set up in his honor in order that young Americans may not forget him who fought for them.

A Queen Made a Color Famous.

Marie Antoinette early in the summer of 1775 appeared before the king, her husband, in a lustrous dress of chestnut brown, and he remarked, laughing, "That puce color is delightfully becoming to you." Very soon all the court ladies had puce colored gowns, but the color not being universally becoming and less extravagant than light brilliant tints the fashion of puce colored toilets was adopted by the upper middle class more than by the nobility, and dyers could hardly fill their orders. The varying shades were given the most peculiar names, none of them attractive, "dea's back," "Paris mud" and "indiscreet tears" being the most euphonious.—Chicago News.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

REACHED A DECISION.

Arbitration in the Trolley Car Strike at Richmond, Va.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., July 18.—At 3:50 this afternoon the street railway strike arbitration reached a decision, which was put into writing, and copies were sent to the company and to the headquarters of the men. These copies were sealed and the arbitrators refused to make known directly the result of their work. It was learned at the office of the company, however, that three members of the committee unite in the following report:

Main line motormen to receive 18½ cents and conductors 17½; branch line motormen 16½ cents and conductors 15½.

The report was signed by three members of the arbitration board. The fourth member, who represented the men, dissented from the report, but it is not known what his position was. Both sides signed a written agreement to abide by the decision of the board of arbitration.

At a meeting of the strikers held tonight the action of the board of arbitration was formally ratified.

NICARAGUA'S REVOLUTION.

Attacks on Ports by Insurgents, Aided by the Colombian Government.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Senor Corea, the Nicaraguan minister here, has received news of two attacks, or attempted attacks, upon Nicaraguan ports by revolutionists, aided by the Colombian government This fact was made patent by the use by these revolutionists of the Columbian warship General Pinzon. The advices say the first expedition of about a thousand men reached Monkey Point, near Bluefields, but owing to the heavy seas and prevailing storm, were unable to make a landing and returned to Colombian waters. About the first week of this month, the revolutionists made a landing near Bluefields. They were attacked by the government forces and routed with the loss of several lives. Many of the revolutionists were captured, including one Wilson, an American citizen. His condition is desperate unless the Nicaraguan government is disposed to clemency.

SUIT FOR LIBEL.

Against the Virginian-Pilot by State's Attorney John G. Tilton.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NORFOLK, VA., July 18.—Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Tilton today instituted suit against the Virginian-Pilot Publishing Company in the sum of $10,000, for the publication and circulation of an alleged libel. The suit grows out of certain articles in which Tilton was criticised by the paper relative to the position he took in declining to hold Osborne, the alleged double wife murderer, arrested here on the charge of killing his wife in this city, instead of turning him over to the Oklahoma authorities to answer for a similar crime there in 1896.

GAYNOR-GREENE CASE ON TRIAL.

Proceedings Consisted Principally of Filing Affidavits for Both Sides.

PROPOSITION TO SETTLE.

Alleged to Have Been Made by Mr. Erwin, of Counsel for the U. S. Government—Affidavit of Denial by Mr. Erwin.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

QUEBEC, QUE., July 18.—To-day's proceedings in the Gaynor-Greene case consisted principally in the filing of affidavits and contra-affidavits and it was only a short time before the adjournment of the court that Mr. McMaster, for the prosecution, commenced his argument on his motions to quash the habeas corpus writs issued by Judge Caron on June 20th and 21st last.

The proceedings were opened by Mr. Taschereau, counsel for the prisoners, who produced affidavits of Benjamin D. Greene, that on May 17th Mr. Erwin called on him at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, when Erwin said to Greene: "If you will pay $500,000 to settle the whole matter, I will go at once to Washington and advise its acceptance."

Greene replied that he could not stand that because he had not money to pay his half of the amount, but that Erwin said, "Gaynor has enough. I don't know where it is, but he has it."

To this Greene said: "If you will say $200,000, I will talk with Colonel Gaynor about it." Erwin replied, the affidavit continued: That will not be enough."

Greene then added: "What do you think of $300,000?" He said; "I don't think that is enough, but if you don't want to go through the rest of your life hunted wherever you go, and you must remember that if you are extradited and are in Georgia, it will be too late to make a settlement."

Greene finally replied: "Well, anyway, I don't see how we can pay any money because that would be an admission on our part that we have received money wrongfully; that we have not done."

Greene swore that this talk of a settlement for $500,000 referred to the criminal proceedings against them and not to any civil claim. This affidavit was supported by another from Mrs. J. F. Gaynor.

Mr. McMaster read an affidavit signed by Marion Erwin, completely denying the allegations contained in the affidavits of Mr. Greene and Mr. Gaynor. Regarding the interview between Greene and himself, Mr. Erwin stated that on his return to the Windsor, on May 27th, he found a note there in which he recognized the handwriting of B. D. Greene, which note was as follows: "If you can call to see me at any time to-day you will do me a great favor."

The original of this note is in the possession of Mr. Erwin and was shown to Judge Caron.

In response to that request he went to Greene's room and the latter opened the conversation by saying that while he knew that Erwin had been prosecuting him vigorously for over two years, he wanted to thank him for having always treated him with personal consideration. He then said if the extradition proceedings at Montreal proceeded for any length of time it was probable he might desire to give bond.

Erwin's affidavit, continued, in substance:

"I called his attention to the fact that he and Gaynor had already forfeited bonds in the sums of $40,000 each. He replied that he had left the United States because he had resolved never to be put in jail as a convict; that he had come to Canada with the expectation that after a year or two his friends in the United States could effect a settlement of the civil claims of the government against him and then he could probably obtain a dismissal of the criminal prosecution. He said that he had not given his personal word that he would not run off from the prosecution in Georgia, but he would pledge me his word of honor that if I would agree to his giving bond before Judge LaFontaine he would not run off. He then referred to the fact that the government had already tied up by civil proceedings half a million dollars of assets, of what the government claimed was O. M. Carter's share in the fraud, and asked me what was the exact amount the government claimed that he and John F. Gaynor had received as their share. I replied that we claimed that he and Gaynor had received $1,400,000 as their shares in the fraud. He replied that he was in no position, and had not sufficient means to meet such a claim, and that he and Gaynor would be willing to pay the government three hundred thousand dollars in settlement of the entire litigation, and forfeited recognizances which he said were secured by assets put up by Gaynor and himself with the sureties, but that if he settled the civil claims it must carry with it the dismissal of the criminal proceedings. I replied that I knew of no law for settling the criminal case, but that if he made restitution of the government's actual loss I did not know what view of leniency might be taken by the government; I had no authority in the matter and that the amount he offered in settlement of the government's civil claim was not sufficiently large for me to recommend to the attorney general."

The other affidavits practically contain the same statement as that mentioned last week in Mr. Erwin's reply to Mr. Taschereau's statement.

Mr. McMaster also produced affidavits from Detectives O'Keefe and Sloan of Montreal, who swear that when the interview took place between Gaynor and Greene only the two were in the room.

Mr. McMaster remarked that these affidavits were filed to contradict utterances made by Mr. Taschereau on July 11th. Mr. McMaster then filed a new power of attorney signed by Attorney General Knox on July 11th.

The question of affidavits was then dropped and McMaster began his argument upon his motion to quash the writs of habeas corpus.

KING EDWARD'S CORONATION.

Official Notification That It Will Take Place August 9th.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 18.—An official notification was issued this morning that by the King's command the coronation of King Edward and Queen Alexandra will take place August 9th. Rehearsals of the procession from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey took place this morning and the officials of the various state departments concerned in the abbey ceremony are again busy with preparations for the crowning.

HEAVY RAINS FLOODING THE MISSOURI FARMS.

Will Ruin Many and Cause Losses That Will Aggregate Millions of Dollars. More Rain Reported.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KEOKUK, IOWA, July 18.—Heavy rains in Central Iowa yesterday and to-day are sending a flood down upon prosperous Missouri farmers, which will ruin many of them and cause losses aggregating, at conservative estimate, two and a half million dollars. There seems to be no hope to-night for the country between the Mississippi river and its Missouri bluffs between Keokuk and Hannibal, three hundred square miles, mostly corn laid-by with some thousands of acres of wheat in the shock. The water had touched the danger line the first of the week and had begun to recede when heavy floods started again in the Des Moines, Skunk and Iowa rivers. With a stage in the Des Moines river only three feet below the tops of the great levees, the river began to rise three inches an hour at the mouth here to-day, continuing until the factor of safety was wiped out this evening.

A rise of one and a half feet in a short time this morning at Ottumwa and a further rise throughout its length below the capital city, was prevented from running out freely by a rise of a foot and half at Davenport last night, increasing and coming down rapidly.

This afternoon the observer of the weather bureau at Keokuk sent telegraphic warnings to all points south to prepare for the danger. The crest is expected here Saturday or Sunday. The Egyptian levee which stood the flood, just receded, after strenuous efforts to hold it, is only slightly above the water now and the coming flood in the Des Moines will cover it certainly. This will let the water into hundreds of square miles, including the town of Alexandria, Mo. The inhabitants there are preparing for an overflow of the entire town to a depth of several feet. The worst feature is the time of the year. The corn crop is all made and wheat is in the shock, entailing a total loss of the year's work. Crops were never finer, and the yield promised to be immense. Grain men put the figures of the loss from the overflow near four millions between Keokuk and Hannibal.

It is believed the Illinois levees will hold and the damage there is likely to be only $20,000 to $30,000 between Keokuk and Quincy. Heavy rains are reported in Southeastern Iowa today, and to-night indicates still higher water. Lowland farmers, river men and the weather bureau observer alike predict the greatest damage ever known from flood on the upper river.

MISSIONARIES ASSAULTED.

Bishop Moore and Party Attacked by Japanese Coolies in Korea.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—An assault was committed upon some Methodist missionaries in Korea by Japanese coolies about the 15th of last month. As Bishop Moore, of the M. E. Church, was en route to the town of Soowon to dedicate a church, his party was attacked by Japanese coolies who were building the railroad from Seoul to Fusan. With the bishop were his young daughter and Messrs. Appenzeller and Swearer, and all of the party suffered, the bishop's pith helmet alone saving his skull from a crushing blow, while Appenzeller was struck down by a blow from a club and Swearer, the other missionary, was struck with a piece of cord wood which gashed his head across the forehead to the bone and may have permanently injured one eye.

FLOODS IN ILLINOIS.

Manufacturing Plants Compelled to Shut Down at Joliet.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JOILET, ILL., July 18.—Rainfall of nearly four inches last night and today has caused another flood in Joliet, overflowing streets and yards adjacent to Spring and Hickory creeks, and creating alarm among hundreds of families. Several manufacturing plants have been compelled to close on account of high water. Further rains are threatened and serious consequences may follow.

LINCOLN, ILL., July 18.—This city and vicinity was visited by a cloud burst this afternoon. Streets, cellars and basements in stores were flooded. Considerable damage was done by hail, wind and electricity.

FATALLY WOUNDED.

A Travelling Salesman Shot by a Policeman at Nashville, Tenn.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NASHVILLE, TENN., July 18.--Policeman Walter E. Jacobs to-day shot twice and fatally wounded Henry F. Beaumont, a travelling salesman of this city. Jacobs claims Beaumont was advancing on him with a butcher knife, which was found where the wounded man fell, and that he had never seen Beaumont until a half hour before, when the man met him and made a threat, after which he walked away. When they met again the shooting occurred.

FREE DRAYING SYSTEM.

Extension of the Railroad Freight War Begun in Louisville, Ky.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEMPHIS, TENN., July 18.—The free delivery system inaugurated in Memphis by the Illinois Central and the Louisville and Nashville railroads as the extension of the fight originating in Louisville is spreading.

Effective July 21st, the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham, the Eastern branch of the 'Frisco and the Southern will adopt the free drayage system. The 'Frisco will not adopt the policy west of the river and for this reason the likelihood of the western roads taking a hand is minimized.

FURIOUS CYCLONE.

Dwellings Overturned and Several Persons Killed Near Chesterville, Ont.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHESTERVILLE, ONT., July 18.—A cyclone of great fury passed within a mile of this town to-day and everything in its path, about sixty rods in width, was destroyed. Dwellings are overturned and dead cattle are lying at nearly every farm. Several persons were killed and a number injured. The damage will exceed $200,000.

ANTHRACITE COAL MINE WORKERS.

MITCHEL'S RECOMMENDATION

Funds to Be Raised in Aid of the Striking Anthracite Miners—An Agreement of One Dollar Per Week Will Probably Be Made

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 18.—At the conclusion of a secret session, which lasted the entire morning, the recommendations of President Mitchell for the management of the anthracite strike were referred to a special committee, which is to report back to the convention to-morrow morning. This committee consists of President Mitchell, Vice President Lewis, Secretary Wilson and the president of each district which is taking part in the convention. There is little doubt that the committee will urge the adoption of the recommendations, and fix the rate of assessment at 10 per cent. or higher.

Vice President Lewis delivered an energetic speech on the amendment offered by Delegate Haskins to-day, that the fund to be raised for the aid of the anthracite miners be extended to all of the striking miners where their strike has been sanctioned by the general organization. He declares that all miners should be taken care of in like manner. President Mitchell told the convention that the strikers in West Virginia and elsewhere were being protected by the general organization, under the regular assessments of the Union, but that the assessment which was under discussion was necessary for the support of the anthracite strike alone and should not be diverted from its purpose. "It is possible that other strikes may come," he said, "and then under the precedent, which a general distribution of the fund to be raised would create, these later strikes could claim their share in the fund, and it would be so depleted as to fail entirely of its purpose." He declared that the cost of maintaining strikes varied according to places and conditions. "The anthracite strike," he concluded," is the cheapest strike that we can have."

Mr. Mitchell assured the convention that the strike in the Pittsburg district and all other strikes would be looked after without splitting up the fund for the anthracite men, and again urged the men to dismiss from their minds all thought of a general strike. His remarks were greeted with enthusiastic cheers.

At the conclusion of the session Secretary Wilson said:

"It will cost $500,000 to support all the men now on strike in the various districts. An assessment of $1 per week will bring in $250,000 a week, an assessment of ten per cent. per week upon each member of the union will result in about the same sum. This will leave us $250,000 to raise each week from outside sources and from the promises and offers that have been made us we are confident that we will be able to do this."

WORLD'S COTTON.

The Total Visible Supply — Secretary Hester's Statement.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, July 18.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, issued to day, shows the total visible to be 2,104,143 bales, against 3,258,202 last week and 2,450,547 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 1,344,143 bales against 1,460,202 last week and 1,481,547 last year, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 760,000 against 798,000 last week and 969,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 1,258,000 against 1,163,000 last year, in Egypt 63,000 against 100,000 last year. In India 433,000 against 573,000 last year; and in the United States 350,000 against 615,000 last year.

POPE DISPLEASED.

In His View the American Demands Regarding the Friars Are Reasonable.

By Cable to the Morning Star

LONDON, July 18.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says the Pope is intensely displeased at the way in which the commission of cardinals has conducted the negotiations with Judge Taft in the matter of the friars in the Philippines. Besides annulling the procedure of the commission of cardinals, the correspondent says, "the Pope has summarily dissolved it, expressing his view that the American demands were reasonable and signifying his readiness to treat with Judge Taft personally."

EARTHQUAKE IN PERSIA.

Houses Were Destroyed, But Only One Fatality is Reported.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BOMBAY, July 18—A severe earthquake shock was experienced at Bunder Abbas, Persia, at 7:30 A. M., July 9th. It lasted three or four minutes and was followed by lighter shocks. The governor's house partly collapsed and the custom house was destroyed. The whole population fled to the sea beach for safety, but only one fatality was reported. The shocks are believed to have originated on Kishm island, where loud detonations were distinctly audible at Bunder Abbas. It is feared that the destruction at Kishm has been heavy.

WARM WIRELETS.

The coroner's jury has declared the officials of the Daly-West mine, Utah, entirely blameless for the accident by which thirty-five men lost their lives.

Jos. Callaway, a member of the Quantrell band during the civil war, is dead at Lexington, Mo., from knife wounds inflicted by "Doc" Johnson in a quarrel Tuesday. Before dying he exonerated Johnson.

Mrs. Lucille Blackburn Lane, daughter of Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, and widow of the late Thomas F. Lane, of Washington, D. C., died yesterday at her residence there, of brain fever and nervous prostration.

A devastating cyclone and tropical rainfall occurred in Austria-Hungary Thursday night. In the Tyrol floods destroyed a quarter of a mile of the railway near Unzmarkt, and a train was derailed, the stoker killed and many persons injured.

Bank clearings at the principal cities for the week ended July 17th as compared with the corresponding week last year, as compiled by Bradstreet, show a total of $2,285,802,277; decrease 5.1 per cent. Outside New York, $829,748,995; increase 4.9 per cent.

CHICAGO FREIGHT HANDLERS.

Another Strike May Be Called—A Mass Meeting to Be Held.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

CHICAGO, July 18.—Another strike of the freight handlers of Chicago may be called Sunday night. President Curran, of the Freight Handlers' Union, has issued a call for a mass meeting of all the freight handlers in the city to be held at that time, to take action on the refusal of four railroads to reinstate all the old men. Mr. Curran said to-night that when the settlement was made, it was agreed with Frederick W. Job, chairman of the State Board of Arbitration, that all the old men were to be taken back. This he says, the Santa Fe, Pan-Handle, Northwestern and Illinois Central railroads have not done, and unless they shall do so before the mass meeting to-morrow night another walkout will be ordered.

NEW WARSHIPS.

Names Selected for the Two Battleships and Two Cruisers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Navy Department to day announced that the two battleships which are to be built under the authority of the last naval appropriation bill, are to be named the Louisiana and Connecticut, and that the two cruisers will be named the Tennessee and Washington.

The battleship to be built at the New York yard will be the Connecticut. The battleships will cost $4,212,000 and the cruisers $4,659,000 each. The two tugs authorized by the act are to be built, one at the Mare Island yard and the other at Boston.

Twenty-two hundred Union laborers in all branches of the building trades at Jacksonville, Fla., went on a strike yesterday because the contractors refused to accede to a demand for an eight hour day. Practically all building operations are temporarily suspended.
